vs.)
)
JARRETT TURNER CHAPPELEAR,)	ORDER
)
Defendant.)

This matter came before the court for hearing on the Motion to Continue Trial [55]. Marty Conboy appeared in person on behalf of the government. The defendant appeared in person. Thomas Monahan appeared telephonically on behalf of the defendant. The parties represented that a plea agreement was proposed and signed by the defendant, along with a petition to enter a guilty plea. The defendant stated that he wishes to move forward with the plea agreement and requested a change of plea hearing; his counsel represented that the plea paperwork would be presented to chambers of Chief Judge Rossiter by June 1, 2023. The government does not object to a continuance. Under these circumstances, the court finds good case to grant the motion to continue. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [55] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for May 30, 2023, is continued to July 3, 2023.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and July 3, 2023, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances and without requesting a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.

DATED: May 26, 2023.
